Mr William Savitt
Hartford Conn.

Dear Mr Savitt:

I have just gone over the statement of the game we played in Hartford, and decided to write you, as I do not feel the terms are just fair.

Of course the game was arranged in a hurry, and most business was transacted over the telephone. There could have easily been a misunderstanding. After going over all the figures, I feel a very fair proposition would be for each team to get one third after expenses. This is not a large figure, and some of the teams might even object to this arrangement, but I would be willing to accept it, and will try to get them to also.

I will have to ask you for an immediate reply, as the team I bring with me will have to be told the terms. If your terms are not satisfactory, we will have to make some other arrangements. Please answer by return air mail, or wire.

Very Truly Yours
